

8.SP.4 Test Review

	On time Homework	Late or Missing homework
Sports after school	34	8
No sports after school	18	32

1. Students that don't play sports after school are more likely to have late or missing homework than students that play sports after school.
2. Students that don't play sports after school are more likely to have late or missing homework than on-time homework.
3. Students that play sports are four times as likely to get their homework done on time than have late or missing homework.
4. Students that play sports are more likely to have on-time homework than students that don't play sports after school.